President Trump Signs Major Disaster Declaration for State of Ohio

Hamilton County, OH - Today, April 17, 2018, President Donald J. Trump issued a Major Disaster Declaration for the State of Ohio triggering the release of Federal funds to help communities recover from Severe Storms, Flooding, and Landslides that occurred February 14-25, 2018. At this time, funding is being made available to reimburse local jurisdictions for emergency work and for the repair or replacement of publicly owned facilities and infrastructure damaged in the flooding. Additional assistance may be available through the Hazard Mitigation Grant Program to assist local communities in taking actions to reduce the long term impact from hazards.

Hamilton County Emergency Management and Homeland Security Agency will share additional information regarding the Declaration as it becomes available.
