Regional Emergency Partners to Gather for Safety Summit

West Chester, OH: The Southwest Ohio Emergency Management Agencies have joined in a collaborative effort to offer a Regional Safety Summit on November 8, 2019 for emergency partners to learn about a variety of pressing safety issues. Registration is now open for this highly anticipated educational seminar, which will allow partners from across the Southwest Ohio region to unite and learn firsthand from a cache of experienced speakers.

Topics of discussion at the Regional Safety Summit include Mass Casualty Events, Crisis Communication, Vulnerable Populations, Family Assistance Centers, Coroners’ Office Panel Discussion, Duke Energy Demonstration, and Regional Mass Casualty Response Assets Display. The keynote speaker will address lessons learned from the 2017 Harvest Festival Shooting in Las Vegas, Nevada.

The Regional Safety Summit will take place at the Ronald Reagan Lodge, Voice of America-MetroParks of Butler County, 7850 VOA Park Drive, West Chester, OH 45069.

Registration opens at 7:30 a.m. with presentations starting at 8:30 a.m. and the event concluding by 4 p.m. To register, please visit: <https://tinyurl.com/y5ph9uc3>.
