Donations Needed to Help Fight COVID-19

Hamilton County, OH - Your help is needed to help healthcare professionals and first responders treat and fight the COVID-19 outbreak. To help alleviate the strain on the County's healthcare system, Hamilton County Emergency Management and Homeland Security Agency (EMHSA) is requesting donations of personal protective equipment (PPE). The specific need of the County is: N95 masks, surgical masks, disposable splash gowns, and exam gloves (latex-free preferred, but all unopened boxes of gloves will be accepted).

Specific industries that may be able to assist include: dental offices, veterinary offices, construction companies, hair salons and beauty supply stores. If you are able to donate, please call 513-263-8200 for donation drop-off location and additional information.

A webpage with information regarding COVID-19 donation needs can be viewed HERE.
