

Hazardous Materials

HAZMAT Containers Course (4-hours)

No Cost to Attend!

(Course fees paid by the Hamilton County)

This four-hour course is designed to comply with NFPA 472, specifically focusing on Hazmat Containers. This course includes:

- Key Characteristics of Hazmat Containers
 - Identify various types of highway, rail, fixed and portable containers
- Review of DOT Hazard Classes, Packaging, Placarding, Marking, and Labeling
 - Carrier Requirements for Highway, Air, Rail, and Water
 - Identification of potential Emergency Control Devices
- Recognizing the importance of proper Container Damage Assessment

Target Audience: Fire Service, HAZMAT, Emergency Management, Law Enforcement, Emergency Medical Services, Healthcare, and Industrial Emergency Response.

Certificates will be issued to students who attend the course

Location: Sharonville Fire Station #86

11637 Chester Road, Sharonville, OH

Tuesday, August 10, 2021 (0800-1200 hours)

Registration: email doug.witsken@hamilton-co.org

